His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lillie, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00.

Trial bottles free at S. J. Hodgkinson's Drug Store; every bottle guaranteed.

The mineral resources of Humboldt county are probably more varied than any other section of the United States, if not in the world. Within its borders are found gold, silver, copper, lead, tin, antimony, nickel, cobalt, bismuth, iron, nitre, sulphur, gypsum, soda, borax and salt.—Argus.

No Right to Ugliness

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

The Revue says that James H. Waters met his death in a mine at Ely, White Pine county last Saturday by being struck by a bucket used for hoisting rock falling into the shaft. Waters lived ten minutes after the accident.

One of the "Chain Gang" Missing. "Stump-Legged" Sutherland, a nuisance to Reno and general humanity, took a quiet leave of absence from his companions Monday. The "gang" were digging a ditch west of town, and Sutherland watched his chance and eluded Police Brown's vigilant eye. May he never return to his accustomed resort in Reno—the county jail.

A NARROW
ESCAPEOne of the Nadon Boys Nearly Drowned While Taking a Swim.

A Nadon boy and other youngsters yesterday concluded to take a swim in the Evans reservoir, near the University campus. The Nadon youth, with two of his companions, stripped off their clothes. Young Nadon leaped into the water first, the others awaiting for their comrades. His plunge was unnoticed by the small boys. The water was deeper than he imagined, and being unable to swim, he made frantic efforts to reach shore.

Some of the University students observed the struggling boy, and became convinced that he was drowning. They called to the boys at the pond, warning them their companion was in danger. The two boys who were undressed immediately went to the rescue. One of them dived to the bottom of the pond, where he discovered the Nadon boy, limp and powerless.

He undertook to bring him to the surface, but was unable to do so. He rose to the surface and dove a second time. He succeeded in getting his head under the unconscious boy and raised him sufficiently for the other boys to seize him.

Vinton Elliot was the youth who made the brave rescue. Other names could not be obtained.

The students procured alcohol and blankets, and finally succeeded in reviving the nearly drowned Nadon chap.

Up from the Reservation.

Major Spriggs drove in from his domain at Pyramid Lake reservation yesterday. He reports everything in shipshape condition. The Plutes are industriously working their little farms, cultivating all manner of growing things—from vegetables to choicest fruits.

The government schools have a good average attendance; sixty-five pupils are enrolled. There is a tendency among the wise old Plutes to have their children forget their mother tongue and talk English exclusively. Their idea is that an Indian nowadays can gain nothing by adhering to Plute talk, but as every benefit comes from the "pale face," their speech must be thoroughly mastered.

Mr. Spriggs stated that the Plutes are unusually satisfied with reservation life. The severest punishment he can inflict upon an Indian is to deny him access to Pyramid. Six policemen, native Indians, are empowered to make arrests and preserve order. So peaceful and contented are the red men that one policeman would find little to do. This speaks well for the management at Pyramid Lake.

Death of Benjamin Lachman.

Benjamin Lachman, an old and respected citizen of Reno, died at his home early Sunday morning.

Mr. Lachman was a native of Germany and has lived on this coast since the early '50s. Nevada has been his home since 1868. For years he owned a clothing store on Virginia street, but retired from this following several years ago. Of late years he has been interested in a mercantile and notion store.

Mr. Lachman's death was not unexpected, as a lingering sickness has had him in its toils for weeks.

Deceased leaves a widow and two daughters, Mrs. Phil Jacobs of this city and Mrs. E. Meyer of San Francisco. He belonged to Reno Lodge, No. 19, I. O. O. F., and was a member of the Jewish fraternity I. O. B. B. An insurance policy for $2,000 was carried by him in the latter society.

The funeral will take place this (Tuesday) afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence, 109 West street, under the auspices of the different lodges of which deceased was a member.

Horrible Death.

Port Devos, a 12-year-old boy in the Carson Indian school was almost instantly killed by a runaway horse Sunday morning. He had led the horse to water and had fastened the halter strap about his waist; it is supposed that he was playing circus with the horse when it became frightened and ran away. The horse was stopped after having ran about 600 yards, and life was then extinct. The funeral will take place today in Carson City, his home.

Mr. Parry's Modern Stable.

The new addition to Mr. Parry's stable is a structure of brick and stone, modern in every particular. Comfortable apartments are fitted up with every convenience for the equine occupants. Airy rooms, lighted by electricity and furnished with hardwood floors, give to the interior an up-to-date appearance. Large rooms are reserved for stowing away carriages and vehicles. The stable is a worthy addition to Reno's modern buildings.

WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT.Mining Expert J. H. Brown Tells of the Bright Outlook
Ahead for Reno.

RENO, May 21, 1900.

I feel very much enthused over the outlook for Reno and vicinity. Progress and prosperity seem to be the general conversation and aim of Reno's business men.

Promoters and capitalists from New York, Montana, Utah, California and various other States, with whom I have recently met, seem ready and anxious to invest their money in smelters and other mining enterprises in Nevada's confines. Now, let us turn out and by combined effort give every inducement that will encourage men of influence and means to invest capital in our midst.

With our mineral deposits of all kinds, water power, timber and splendid climatic conditions, Nevada's populace should be able to attract and keep these moneyed men—with benefits to both State and the men attracted.

Push and energy are the requirements that will make Reno a booming mining metropolis.

Thirteen hundred miles of railroad radiates from Reno through the State; and it is mostly a mineral-bearing territory over which the rails are laid. This fact insures a rapid development of Nevada's mineral wealth if once the ball is given a start.

In a recent visit to the Peavine district I was favorably impressed with the mining prospects. There are great quantities of ore in sight, and work is progressing nicely at all the claims.

Respectfully yours,
J. H. BROWN.

I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a similar attack since.—A. Got the Correct Time.
Jake Foster was for many years one of the characters of Oregon, Mo. He drove the hack between Oregon and Forest City and was known to every man, woman and child in Holt county. Oregon is three miles from the railroad and for many years was not connected with any other town by either telegraph or telephone. One morning Robert Montgomery hailed Foster as the hack started for Forest City and said: "Take, I wish you would get the correct time at Forest. My watch stopped last night."
"All right, Bob," said Jake.
When Jake returned from Forest, he put up his team and walked around to the bank where Montgomery presided. Stalking into the bank, Jake stepped up to the window and laid down a soiled bit of paper bearing the figures "11:17."
"What is that?" asked Montgomery in astonishment.
"That," replied Jake, "is the correct time at Forest."—Omaha World-Herald.

Lungs and Long Life.
One of the most remarkable cases of longevity on record was that of an Englishman, born in 1483, whose delicate appearance made all the doctors give him up when he was in the cradle. His chest was so narrow, says the report, that he seemed to have difficulty in breathing. Well, this young moribund, condemned by the doctors to die in short order, died in 1651 at the age of 169. He saw the reign of ten kings.
Second! Hango, consti of Venice at Smyrna, measured only 57 centimeters around the chest, and one of his lungs was diseased. Nevertheless he lived to the age of 115 years. He was married five times and had 49 children. When he was 100 years old, he got his wisdom teeth. When he was 110, his hair turned black again. At 112 his eyebrows and his beard turned black.

Proved His Theory.
The late Hall McAllister some years ago entertained a visiting scientist at the Union club, before its amalgamation with the Pacific, and during the evening, a particularly foggy one, made some whimsical remark conveying the idea that fog was an excellent conductor of sound.
The scientist took exception to this novel theory and asked Mr. McAllister on what it was based.
"On phenomena which we have all observed," returned the ready jurist. "On an evening like this we hear the fog horn quite distinctly, but when there is no fog we cannot hear it at all."—San Francisco Argonaut.

Slip of the Tongue.
"What do you sell that ribbon for?" asked a young lady in a High street dry goods store.
"Eight dollars a week—oh, beg pardon, 25 cents a yard, madam."—Columbus (O.) State Journal.

Rest in the World.
We believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best in the world. A few weeks ago we suffered with a severe cold and a troublesome cough. Having read their advertisements in our own and other papers we purchased a bottle to see if it would effect us. It cured us before the bottle was more than half used. It is the best medicine out for colds and coughs.—The Herald, Andersonville, Ind. For sale by Wm. Pinniger.
